

Overwhelmed by the Comprehensive Emergency Management Plan (CEMP) process?

Let us demystify the process in Polk and Hardee Counties. Join us for a free workshop November 8, 2018 at the Polk County Emergency Operations Center, 1890 Jim Keene Blvd. Winter Haven, FL. for either of two sessions (9:30 -11:30 am and 1:30- 3:30 p.m.)

Who Should Attend: Home Health Agencies, Home Medical Equipment Companies, Nurse Registries, Hospice Care licensed in Polk and Hardee Counties

We will cover:

- Tips and considerations for agencies writing or updating a CEMP
- Crafting a plan that includes a process for ensuring continuity of care before, during, and after a disaster
- Requirements for educating and tracking special needs clients
- Reviewer and statutory expectations
- Forms and fee structure

***Please bring your current CEMP*****

Using best practices, breakout sessions allow essential networking to strengthen community partnerships for disaster planning. The sessions also allow you to work on plan specifics with colleagues from similar agencies, as well as reviewers from the Florida Department of Health.

When registering, choose the morning or afternoon session and email names with phone numbers and agency affiliation to: Jennifer.Brandow@flhealth.gov
